PIE CLUB ALERT!

We'll soon be posting the first of many pie cooking demos on the website, we've already filmed Aromatic Mutton Pie and next month we'll be featuring Venison and Double Chocolate Stout Pie.

NEXT PIE CLUB EVENT

The Pie Master appears on the ITV Daybreak...

Did you see us on Daybreak, the ITV breakfast programme recently hosted by Adrian Chiles and Christine Bleakley? It went out on March 7th. If you didn't catch the programme, don't worry, we'll be posting it onto the website within the next couple of weeks. Basically we were filmed preparing a breakfast pie which we called a 'pie up' as opposed to 'fry up'. Get it?

A number of pies were taken back to the studio where a pie eating competition was held between 2 boy bands, the Wanted and McFly. Mc Fly won (if anyone's interested). We initially thought that idea of this breakfast pie was gross but everyone loved it! Basically, it's comprises sausage wrapped in bacon, quails eggs, mushrooms and wait for it....bake bean gravy.

...And carries onto BBC Radio London with Jo Good's

On the same day, we were invited onto Jo Goods late show on BBC radio London 94.9 fm. She's really great. Sam (Windmill unplugged sessions) played 2 songs from his forthcoming album and we delivered pies and pints to the studio which were sampled on air.

ACCOUSTIC NIGHTS in the Pie Room, doors @ 7pm, £4 entry

Unplugged sessions of contemporary and traditional acoustic music.

March 28th - Fly Agaric

Monday 28th of March sees a debut performance at the Windmill by the great new band Fly Agaric. The band features world class musicians playing original material composed by all members of the group. For more information about Fly Agaric visit: www.alivism.com/flyagaric

THE GUINEA GRILL

Our sister establishment, The Guinea Grill first opened the doors in 1952 and has been serving the best Scotch Beef in the town ever since.

Meat lovers will be delighted to know that we will shortly be introducing prime Scotch Porterhouse steaks. These are 800/900g oversized T bones with a combination of sirloin and maximum fillet.

Ask at the bar if you'd like us to book you a table!
